28 CODE OF CONDUCT, DISCIPLINE AND COMPLAINTS

28.1 The Code of Conduct and disciplinary procedures provided for hereunder apply to all members including cyclists and non-participating persons and cyclists competing individually or as part of the Provincial Team, District Team at Club Events, District Events, Provincial Events, District Championships, Provincial Championships and any other district, provincial or national events.

28.2 The Code of Conduct states:

28.2.1 Members shall conduct themselves in a sporting manner.

28.2.2 Members shall behave in a responsible, respectful and courteous manner towards team members, competitors, coaches, staff, officials, volunteers and members of the public while at competitions and while travelling.

28.2.3 Members shall not commit any act which would be considered an offence under any law within the Republic of South Africa or the laws of the country in which the event takes place (insofar as they can reasonably be expected to be aware of those laws).

28.2.4 Members shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with commitment to excellence in sport competition including respect for quiet hours and appropriate treatment of alcohol.

28.2.5 Members shall respect private property such as accommodation.

28.2.6 Members shall be aware of and abide by the current provisions of doping prohibitions and penalties adopted by CSA and the UCI.

28.3 Contravention of the Code of Conduct may result in any one or more of the following sanctions:

28.3.1 Written reprimand;

28.3.2 Suspension from the competition;

28.3.3 Suspension from the team for a specified period of time;

28.3.4 Fine;

28.3.5 Probationary terms and conditions;

28.3.6 Suspension or expulsion from CSA and/or ECC.

28.4 ECC, Districts, Provincial Team Managers, District Team Managers, Provincial Team Coaches and District Team Coaches have the authority to impose reasonable disciplinary measures on members who do not adhere to the Code of Conduct.

28.5 The Disciplinary Procedure is as follows:

28.5.1 When disciplinary action is being considered, the member shall receive notification of the following:

28.5.1.1 The specific circumstances leading to the consideration of the disciplinary action;

28.5.1.2 Steps that can be taken to remedy the situation and a reasonable period of time during which those steps may be taken, if applicable (for example, verbal or written apology, payment of costs);

28.5.1.3 Information on the probable penalties.

28.5.2 Notification shall be given in writing unless exceptional circumstances dictate that notification may be given verbally.

28.5.3 The member shall be provided an opportunity to present his/her view prior to the decision, whether orally or in writing.

28.5.4 Whenever possible, a disciplinary measure should be the result of a decision by a disciplinary committee of preferably three (3) members, appointed by the District Chairperson who are or have been cyclists within the discipline in question for no less than three years or who the District deems similarly qualified in the case of disciplines in respect of which no specific cycling experience. In circumstances of urgency, the District Chairperson may appoint a disciplinary committee of fewer than three (3) members.

28.5.5 The member shall be advised of the decision and reasons therefore promptly, and shall be advised of the appeal process available.

28.5.6 If circumstances dictate, a disciplinary committee may issue a written reprimand or suspend a member from the current competition without written or verbal notification to the cyclist. In these circumstances a full written report must be prepared and submitted to the District Chairperson within five (5) days. The appeal process remains available to the member.

28.5.7 The penalty imposed shall reflect the seriousness of the offence.

28.5.8 The member has the right to appeal a disciplinary action in accordance with the Appeal Procedure contained in clause 29 below. It is recognised however that an appeal may not be possible prior to a member's removal from an event.

28.5.9 In all other matters of a disciplinary nature or if a member has a concern or complaint relating to any official, administrator or fellow cyclist, the member or if the member is an cyclist, the cyclist or the Cyclist's Representative shall contact the District Chairperson for assistance within thirty (30) days after the issue arose. The member shall complete and file Form A (or equivalent written explanation of the issue) with the District Chairperson or a person assigned by the District Chairperson for such matters, who shall endeavour to resolve the issue to the satisfaction of the member within thirty (30) days.

28.5.10 In the event that the District Chairperson or designate fails to assist the member within thirty (30) days of receiving notice, the member may contact the General Secretary of CSA and file with the General Secretary a completed Form A.

28.5.11 The District Chairperson, must appoint an ad hoc committee of three disinterested individuals of, who shall endeavour to resolve the issue within thirty (30) days. One member of the committee should have a legal background. The committee shall allow the member to supply any additional material he/she considers relevant within ten (10) days and shall forward the submissions to the affected parties and allow them twenty (20) days to respond. The member shall then be allowed a further ten (10) days to respond to the information received from the affected parties.

28.6 The time periods may be abridged by the committee.

28.7 The committee may receive written submission or hear oral submissions through a telephone conference or in person.

28.8 The committee may determine any appropriate sanction including a financial penalty.

- 29.4 Any person affected by a decision/ruling of an authorised person or committee of ECC and its Districts may appeal that decision/ruling by filing a written Notice of Appeal stating the grounds upon which the appeal is based within ten (10) days of receiving notification of the decision/ruling.
- 29.4.1 A written Notice of Appeal must be lodged with the Secretary General of CSA.
 - 29.4.2 CSA shall take a final decision on the appeal

30 ARBITRATION

Subject to any person's constitutional rights of review, all disputes arising out of or in connection with this constitution or its application or interpretation shall be resolved by domestic remedies and be referred to the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa, referring it to Arbitration in terms of the Arbitration Act No 42 of 1965 for resolution through Mediation or Arbitration in terms of the Rules and procedures for the resolution of disputes in sports prevailing at the time that such a dispute is so referred. To this extent all Affiliates, Districts, constituent structures and office bearers, officials and individuals waive their rights to the jurisdiction of any Courts of Law and agree that Resolution in terms of the a foregoing shall be final and binding. No Affiliate, Office Bearer, Commissioner or Constituent Structure shall be liable to ECC or District or to any member of any Affiliate or any other party whatsoever or any Act or Omission done in good faith and without gross negligence.

CHAPTER I – MATTERS NOT OTHERWISE COVERED

31 EXTRANEOUS MATTERS

All matters not specifically covered by this Constitution shall be decided by the District which administers the region and / or discipline to which of the matter pertains, but subject to ratification by the District.

CHAPTER J – ADOPTION AND DISSOLUTION

32 ADOPTION

Any previous constitutions of EPC, BCA as well as ECCA and any other branch of organised cycling within the Province of the Eastern Cape are replaced by this Constitution which is accepted and approved by Affiliates and Members at an Annual General Meeting of ECC held on the 13th November 2010 at, Port Elizabeth. And be referred to as Constitution 20101010

33 DISSOLUTION

- 33.1 ECC may be dissolved or merged with another association with similar purposes and objects only by proposal at a General Meeting which is carried with a (75%) seventy five majority.
- 33.2 When the organisation is dissolved it has to pay off all its debts. After doing this, if there is property or money left over it should not be paid or given to members of the organisation. It should be given in some way to another non-profit organisation that has similar objectives. The organisation's general meeting can decide what organisation this should be.

CHAPTER K – LEGAL MATTERS

34 PROPERTY AND INCOME

The organisation may not give any of its money or property to its members or office bearers. The only time it can do this is when it pays for work that a member or office bearer has done for the organisation. The payment must be a reasonable amount for the work that has been done and approved by the relevant District prior to the work being undertaken..

35 BODY CORPORATE

The organisation shall:

- 35.1 Exist in its own right, separately from its members.
- 35.2 Be able to own property and other possessions.
- 35.3 Be able to sue and be sued in its own name

36 CONTINUED EXISTANCE

The organisation shall continue to exist even when its membership changes and there are different office bearers.

37 RIGHTS IN THE PROPERTY OR OTHER ASSETS OF THE ORGANISATION

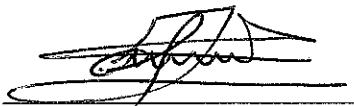

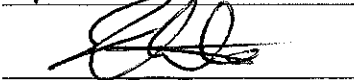

Members or office bearers of the organisation do not have rights over things that belong to the organisation.

CHAPTER L – ANNEXURES

Annexures to this constitution are Policy and Regulations documents that supplement this constitution. These documents may be amended and approved by the commissions as operational requirements change and consensus must be gained from the relevant authorised person in the Districts.
